THE SITUATION NOWBoth Sides Apparently Watching Effects of Outside Pressure.

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The peace treaty situation today appeared to have resolved itself into another stalemate. There seems to be scant prospect of any immediate compromise, republican leaders having rejected the latest democratic proposal for the modification of the Lodge reservation, although some of the republican mild reservationists still profess a willingness to dicker with the democrats.

Conflicting reports emanating from cloak-room pow-wows made the situation all the more difficult to size up accurately. It was patent to close observers that both sides were playing politics while waiting to see what one another would yield under the pressure being exerted by outside influences bent upon ratification.

AMERICA MAY NOT
TRIAL OF EX-KAISER(International News Service.)
PARIS, Jan. 13.—The question of American representation upon the international tribunal for the trial of the ex-kaiser was understood to be under discussion to-day by the supreme council.

While the U. S. has not ratified the peace treaty it is pointed out that President Wilson's action in issuing a formal call for the League of Nations meeting on Friday, in accordance with the treaty terms, despite the fact that America has not signed the treaty, may be accepted as a precedent. Therefore, it is contended "the U. S. might use this action as a basis of authority in appointing a judge to help try the former kaiser."

U. S. HANDS OFF

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Secretary of State Lansing said today that he knew nothing of any consideration by the U. S. of participation in the proposed trial of the ex-kaiser. He indicated that this government will not give the matter consideration.

President Wilson's action in calling the first meeting of the League of Nations will not set a precedent for further participation in the provisions of the treaty, Secretary Lansing said.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—Premier Clemenceau and Premier Lloyd George, by forceful argument, have induced Premier Nitti, of Italy, to assent to a compromise on Fiume acceptable to the Jugo-Slavs, and are now studying the geographical boundaries, it was reported today.PHONE EMPLOYES

U. S. DECLINES TO
OF SEIZED SHIPPING

(International News Service.)

PARIS, Jan. 13.—The supreme council of the peace conference practically ended its existence today with the completion of the Hungarian treaty, and will be succeeded by a committee of ambassadors.

The council was informed by U. S. Ambassador Wallace that America will not accept any of the naval reparations secured from Germany as a result of the sinking of the interned German fleet at Scapa Flow, because of the smallness of the American allotment. The council had refused to re-consider the decision to allow only 2 per cent of the German warships and floating docks to America. Thereupon, Ambassador Wallace communicated with Washington, seeking instructions, following receipt of which it was announced that the United States would accept nothing.

While the supreme council virtually passes out of existence, it was explained that there will still be formal meetings between the various premiers and others to conclude final details that could not be settled otherwise.

Henderson, resident state highway engineer for the Eighth district. Among the Athens visitors here were W. T. Clay, J. C. Carter, Charles Smith, of the commissioners court; C. W. Saver, secretary of the Board of Commerce, Walter McWilliams, former state bank examiner and Mr. Henderson.

SIBERIAN POLICY
ANNOUNCED SOON(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—America's policy in Siberia will be announced publicly by the state department in a few days, it was learned today. The original purpose of the American forces in Siberia to protect the Czechoslovak troops is being rapidly accomplished. The Czechoslovak troops are being gradually withdrawn, and if this movement is completed shortly it is possible that the American troops will be taken from Siberia, unless other reasons for their maintenance there arises.RECEIPT OF POLL TAXES NOW

The following officers were named at a meeting of the stockholders of the Central National bank: A. A. Hardage, president; T. H. Mattocks, vice president; Thomas A. Bowles, cashier; Stanley Wyatt, assistant cashier; R. C. Gardner, assistant cashier; board of directors: F. M. Schilke, C. V. Dupont, O. B. Moehes, S. M. Thompson, L. P. Troup, J. S. Patterson, J. L. Gunter, C. H. Eyster, A. C. Dillehay, A. A. Hardage, T. H. Mattocks, T. A. Bowles, Stanley Wyatt.

The reports of the officers for the past year showed a remarkable growth of the bank. Improvements, costing more than $10,000 now are being made in the bank's interior, including the installation of a modern safety deposit vault.

Resolutions endorsing the proposed $25,000,000 bond issue for good roads were passed by the stockholders. The resolutions follow: Resolved: that the stockholders of this bank urgently urge the voters to vote for the constitutional amendment to be voted on February 16, 1920 to authorize the state of Alabama to give $25,000,000 in bonds for the construction of good roads in this state.

Resolved: Further, that inasmuch as if said amendment is passed and adopted by the voters, the state will receive $25,000,000 additional from the Federal government to be also expended in the construction of good roads in the state, and as said expenditures will not add an additional cent of taxation against the property of any tax payer, but will be paid alone by the auto truck and automobile owners, we earnestly urge this as an additional reason why said amendment should be adopted, thereby enlarging the wealth and general prosperity of every section of the state. The adoption of this amendment will release for side roads and cross roads the general road fund of the county for the construction and maintenance of roads.

FORMER NURSE IS SENT TO POLAND

Miss Emma Anderson, former United States army nurse, recently stationed here in the health drive, under the auspices of the Red Cross, has been sent to Poland by the A. R. C. to do relief work, information received by friends here today stated.

Miss Anderson, for 15 months, was a nurse on a troop train, carrying wounded from the front to the first aid stations and during that time, she rarely was out of the danger zone. During her stay in Morgan County, she made many friends who wish her well on her second relief trip abroad.

CHARLES EVANS HUGHES ROASTED
BY A NEW YORK ASSEMBLYMANFormer Party Standard Bearer Declared to Have Pro-German Tendencies

(International News Service.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Strong possibility that the trial of the five socialists suspended from the New York state assembly will not be started tomorrow, as scheduled, loomed up this afternoon. Chairman Lewis Martin, of the judiciary committee, which will hear the charges against the suspended members, said the trial would not be begun until Thursday or Friday because of time expected to be consumed in drafting rules of procedure.

(International News Service.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Bitter

denunciation of Charles Evans Hughes and the charge that he has pro-Germanism and disloyalty in his "make-up" followed attempts today to have the entire body sit as a judiciary committee in the trial of the five suspended socialist members of the New York legislature, beginning tomorrow.

"I have looked with suspicion on Charles Evans Hughes for the last three or four years," declared Assemblyman Martin G. McCue, democrat, of New York, in debate on a privilege resolution seeking the change in the assembly rules.

"I remember three years ago, when it was thought for a time that Hughes had been elected president, that every pro-German in my district paraded the streets shouting with joy at the news of Hughes' election. I wonder now if it isn't because of the disloyalty in his make-up that he is now seeking to defend the five socialists."

Assemblyman Joseph Steinberg, republican, in whose district Hughes has his residence, defended the former governor and challenged McCue to prove his charges of disloyalty.

In his morning sermon the speaker's address made a profound impression and large numbers from the congregation went up at the close to meet and talk with him. As he closed his message, Dr. Dickenson said that he, felt it was his duty to speak plainly of the ravages of said diseases. He said that Alabama boys as classed for the great war were in four classes, and none but the first class were allowed in camp. "But in this high class," said the speaker, "ten and a fraction per cent of the boys were suffering from social diseases. What must have been the percentage in the lower classes?" The speaker gave a moving word picture of a recent visit he paid to a blind children's asylum. He related the prime and almost total cause, as he said, of blindness at birth and then quoted solemnly and with great effect, the supposed words of a little blind child who said: "My father poisoned my little bed, ere I could get out of it and the poison ate out my eyes."

"Poor babe," soliloquized the preacher, "born in a poison bed, where the father had placed the poison." I wonder what such a father thinks when he takes such a little blind babe in his arms?"

"Now, I am through. All the specific remedies for these awful diseases will be at your disposal. You have the power and the responsibility. Are you willing to protect American blood for the next generations? Of the folly, of it all. Fifty per cent of the social diseases are contracted before the victims are 20 years old. They are diseases of boys and girls. You who have morality in your hearts and sense in your heads are due to protect the ignorant and foolish! Do you say that plain speaking such as I do, should be 'taboo'?"

Perhaps, some are saying I should not come out so plain. Well, the vulgar ones around the corner are not keeping silent, and it is up to us who know the truth to combat their false propaganda with the plain truth to our children."

Great Welfare Sermon

Dr. Dickinson's morning sermon was based on the Scripture story telling of the Savior's "compassion" for the multitude. "We go to Jesus for all the precious things," said the speaker. "In fact, I am suspicious of any thing that does not come from Him. He could not only love the individual, but He could have compassion on the multitude." The speaker explained at length the distinction between loving just a few individuals, and in loving in a community and world wide sense. "We should love the Russians" exclaimed the speaker, "that great community of over 170 millions, mainly fools."

"I think I have an important message, from the health department of the nation. Now, I want you to see the whole population of Alabama and love them all as God loves them. Jesus thought of the multitude in the Many changes in locations will be made by prominent Bank street merchants within the next two months and one new store, a millinery shop, will be opened by Miss Etta Harris, formerly of Memphis, Tenn., according to announcements made today.

The Beeson-Cobb Drug company, now located on the corner of Bank and Church streets will remove to the building on the corner of Bank and Lafayette, now occupied by the Lesser dry goods company. The building will be greatly improved, a new front built, the store equipped with a tile floor and other innovations and the building will be made into one of the handsomest drug stores in the state, it was said.

Mr. Lesser has leased the adjoining building, formerly occupied by Sam Frank, who has moved to his new location several doors north. A new front will be installed and the building otherwise extensively improved.

The Reuther Jewelry company has leased the building next door to the postoffice, formerly occupied by F. H. Pointer, grocer, and as soon as improvements are completed, will move from its present location.

The old Reuther stand will be occupied by Miss Etta Harris, formerly of Memphis, who will open an up-to-date millinery shop.

"We needed more room and expect to have one of the most attractive buildings in this section, when our improvements, which include a new front, are completed," Mr. Reuther stated.

Spring Clothing

Retailers Assert(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—"If you think that last suit was high, just wait until you come up for the next one."

Hundreds of retail clothiers here attending the mid-winter convention of the National Retail Clothiers, made the foregoing assertion today with emphasis.

"Clothing is high now, but it's going to be 25 to 40 per cent higher in the spring," said H. R. King, national director for the state of Washington.

Secretary Chas. E. Wry said that clothing prices would not go back to their pre-war level during this generation.

"The big fellows are making the money," said President Fred Levy. "Clothing is bound to be high until the government gets the profiteers."

He demanded an investigation of the American Woolen Company, whose stock he said was $12 a share in 1914 and is now $190 a share.

BRIDGING THE TENNESSEE: A GREAT UNDERTAKING

The biggest undertaking that is to-day before the people of the Tennessee Valley is the bridging of the Tennessee river here, at the conjunction of two great trunk line railroads, and at the intersection of two great national highways—the Bee Line Highway and the Muscle Shoals Highway. Until this bridge is built, Albany and Decatur cannot come fully into their own, nor can the other cities and towns that dot this rich valley live up to their full opportunities.

Ever since the day that the first white man pitched his tent in the wilderness beside the majestic stream that dips down into Alabama from Tennessee and then flops back again, the need of a bridge at this strategic point has been recognized. As the aborigines faded away and civilization more firmly placed its standards, the need for the bridge was accentuated, for the pale face is not an adept at swimming his horse across a swollen stream and hasn't yet invented an hydro-automobile. Ferryboats are recognized as a good thing in their place, but they are inconveniently small for the transporting of an electric car. Progress, with the development of the motor vehicle and the harnessing of the waters of Muscle Shoals, has made the bridge a present day necessity.

That the Tennessee Valley has ample resources to construct a bridge, even at a cost of $650,000, must be admitted. That this money would be wisely invested, and would yield great future returns in the way of the development of this entire section—enhancing the value of farm lands, of business property and stirring investors to greater activity in the location of industries, large and small, cannot be gainsaid. The only obstacle that stands in the way of success is lack of co-operation, and this needed co-operation seems destined to come under the leadership of such men as Col. Grafton, a civil engineer of note, who has become interested in the project, the magnitude of which fires his imagination and arouses his fighting spirit.

With a long pull and a strong pull, there is no doubt but that the dream of spanning the Tennessee with a wagon bridge will soon be realized. It is just a question of team work, and no laying down.

THE EARLY TRIAL OF THE FORMER KAISER

These captious persons who spent their time wondering what the newspapers would do for news after the war ended, failed to take cognizance of the opportunities offered in the prospective trial of the former Kaiser. They not only were short-sighted in regard to the dramatic possibilities of the trial itself, but also of the endless chain of speculation that must precede the actual arraignment of the deposed war lord. For more than a year now the daily press has teemed with news stories regarding William Hohenzollern, the life that he is leading in captivity, his rounds with his barber, his walks about the estate as Amerongen, and those little side-lights that are expected to interest a public that is always curious in regard to the doings of a caged Napoleon. And as these are beginning to wane in interest, the peace treaty is signed—except by the United States—and actual preparations are begun for the extradition of the deposed autocrat from Holland. After the full chapter of extradition proceedings is written—and this will be a regular Harry Thaw affair—there will come the trial itself, and it will be one of the most notable in the annals of the world. That the ex-kaiser is to be tried seems a foregone conclusion, for under the terms of the treaty of Versailles he is surrendered by Germany to the keeping of the allies, and his only hope to escape responsibility for his crimes lies in the refusal of Holland to grant extradition, and in the refusal of the entente nations to force Holland to do their bidding.

NITRATE PLANTS NOT GOING A BEGGING

(Birmingham Ledger.)

As far as money waste at Muscle Shoals during the war is concerned, Nicholas Longworth and the rest of the critics of this particular expenditure appear by this time to have become convinced that the nitrate plant was no exception to the war finance game as everywhere conducted.

Secretary of War Baker urges an appropriation of $12,000,000 for the construction of a sulphuric acid plant and working capital for the operation of the Muscle Shoals nitrate plants as a quasi-public corporation. He was promptly able to show the house investigating committee that there was no danger of the plant going to

CHEERFUL WORD

For Many an Albany Household. To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove helpful to hundreds of Albany readers.

Mrs. F. B. Napps, 609 4th Ave., Albany, says: "At the time I used Doan's Kidney Pills I was generally run down. My kidneys were weak and caused me much annoyance and my back would hurt terribly any time I attempted to do any sweeping or dusting. The pains extended into my shoulder blades and through the back of my neck and top of my head. Reading, lead accounts of Doan's Kidney Pills, lead me to try them. I was more than pleased with the results and one box entirely cured me. I am glad to tell others of this remedy."

the scrap heap, because the American Cyanamid company and others are eager to secure its possession and to operate. Thereby another bogey was disposed of.

Two very good reasons for operation of the plant on fertilizer nitrates exists.

(1) The Chilean supply is not inexhaustible.

(2) In emergencies, when shipping is tied up in other directions, as, for instance, during the world war, it is impossible to import an adequate supply.

Both at Muscle Shoals and on the Warrior we have had a persistent and uphill fight, but, in the end, we have carried each point a step forward to it. We will keep up the game until all have been achieved.

With a long pull and a strong pull, there is no doubt but that the dream of spanning the Tennessee with a wagon bridge will soon be realized. It is just a question of team work, and no laying down.

It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. ## SCHOOL SURVEY

There is not a great deal to tell except that the attention of girls and boys having been called to their physical beings has had excellent results in many instances the applied knowledge bringing the student to the correct weight—just what the effort was intended for. During the holidays Miss Godbey visited many homes, instructing in diet.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

Next week a membership drive for the Benevolent Society will be put on. Work in foreign fields must be kept going, but the needy at our door has to be cared for. The Benevolent Society for more than twenty-five years has been the factor locally but our cities have grown so much, that a larger membership is necessary to care for our own needy.

At no time have we had occasion to confer with the societies' committees, when the case was a new one. The reply has invariably been, "Yes, we have been to see them, or we have sent clothes and provisions." Let every one become a member.

WEDNESDAY CARD CLUB

The Wednesday Card club will meet tomorrow with Mrs. J. Robert Daniel, at her home at 224 East LaFayette street.

Mrs. William Watson will return to Pineapple, Alabama Wednesday, having visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Crawford during the Christmas season.

The speaker said that during the war he was busy "making morale" for the American army, and that he considered that "morale" was as important to victory as civil life as in war. He said that in ten generations the white population of America would become extinct, just as other civilizations had passed, unless disease was stopped, especially social diseases.

THE TRIPOD OF HEALTH PUTS YOUR SYSTEM IN ORDER

The Liver, Kidneys and Blood are Your Tripod of Health. When One is in Distress They All Suffer.

Dr. Hitchcock's Liver, Kidney & Blood Powders Tone up the Liver and Kidneys, Purifying the Blood and Keeps Your Tripod of Health in Balance.

A Vegetable Compound. Will Not Make You Sick. Eat Anything You Like.

When bilious, suffering with indigestion, headaches, rheumatism and feel out of sorts generally, it doesn't necessarily mean that your liver is the only part of your anatomy that needs attention. This upset condition may be caused by either the kidneys or blood, and the liver simply refuses to function out of sympathy. If you only treat your liver, you are only getting at one-third of your trouble.

The Liver, Kidneys and Blood are so closely allied that when one gets out of order the others fall in line. Therefore the only way to put the entire system back to its normal healthy condition is to right the liver and kidneys and purify the blood.

Dr. Hitchcock's Liver, Kidney & Blood Powders will clear all these three vital parts of the system—keep your Tripod of Health in balance. This is one of Dr. Hitchcock's favorite prescriptions that he used successfully for over 60 years.

25 cents will buy a large tin box at your druggist. Take a level teaspoonful tonight and it will straighten you out by morning. If you are not satisfied your money refunded. Advertisement.

"THE LOVE DOCTOR" AT THE MASONIC TONIGHT

Manuel Lederer's singing and dancing sensation "The Love Doctor" which will be the attraction at the Masonic Tonight is conceded to be one of the smartest and brightest musical comedies of recent years. The keynote of all Mr. Lederer's productions is the "intimate" spirit between players on the stage and the audience in the theatre.

"The Love Doctor" affords a splendid opportunity for all because the play has a real plot, natural, intelligent, witty dialogue and possesses that subtle touch of refined comedy that compels laughter. There are interwoven a number of pretty love scenes which add greatly to the effectiveness of the story.

With a beautiful production, splendid cast and a beauty chorus that is not misnamed, "The Love Doctor" is setting the pace for public approval and making a record of delighted audiences.

The Book is by Thos. Hardin and music by Adolph Meyerfield whose music has charmed thousands of theatregoers. Some of the melodious numbers are "Hickory Dick," "Room 202," "Social Season," "Jerry," "Remedies for Love," "Kentucky Dreams" all of which are catchy whistly musical hits.

"BLUE" SINGER MAKES HIT AT THE PRINCESS

Happy, "Blue" Lawson, vocalist, opened an engagement at the Princess theatre yesterday afternoon, making a hit with both the afternoon and night audiences. Mr. Lawson formerly was with the Honey Boy minstrels. He renders a number of popular songs and yesterday was forced to respond with a number of encores. His work is expected to draw big crowds all week.

"THE SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS"

Masonic Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, Jan 14 and 15.

All the good things in Harold Bell Wright's novel are concentrated in the filmization of "The Shepherd of the Hills." This is one of the few stories that has not been spoiled in the retelling for the pictures. It remained for the ex-Kansas City clergyman to find romance in the Ozarks long before that country had become a national vacation land as it is now. The story of Mr. Wright's transition from a wandering landscape painter to a clergyman and later an author who has since become famous in all lands is interestingly told by the dramatic critic of the Kansas City "Times."

Mr. Wright wandered to the Ozarks to paint landscapes, not that he was much of an artist but living was cheap in the hills and the young man had just left college a year before graduation for lack of funds. He had supported himself previously as a painter and decorator. He went one Sunday to hear a circuit rider who was to preach in a little log school house. The preacher failed to appear and after an awkward pause, a tall mountaineer, toothless, his trousers in his boots, slipped Wright on the shoulder and said: "Say, young feller, you all seem to have some education, kain't you give us a spell o' talk?" That was the beginning of Mr. Wright's career as a preacher. He came ultimately to the Forest Avenue Church in Kansas City. Soon, as he said, he had found a more attractive way of preaching—through his novels. He resigned his ministry and went into the Ozarks where he wrote "The Shepherd of the Hills."
